

SUNDAY, MAY 28, 1922

Society Goes
Out of City
For Holiday

Call of Outdoor Sports
Sends Leaders to Track,
Golf, Tennis, Fishing
and Rural House Parties

Many Yacht Clubs
Open Memorial Day

Fairfield Hounds Run at Westchester; Racing Devoted at Belmont Park

THE first week-end holiday of the spring will find almost every one of social prominence out of town. The sport attractions for Memorial Day have been rather elaborately planned and will attract a large crowd of those in the smart set who are devoted to outdoor recreation.

Racing, which was inaugurated Thursday with the first spring race on the regular course at Belmont Park, claimed the attention of the devotees of the track who reside on Long Island. Yesterday the annual race meet of the Fairfield and Westchester County hounds, of which Mr. John McE. Bowman and Mr. M. Roy Jackson are joint masters, transferred the field of interest to Westchester. It was one of the most successful amateur meets of the season and served to assemble representatives from Greenwich, Stamford, Rye, Harrison, Port Chester and White Plains, as well as a large contingent from New York. A feature of the day was the ladies' race, a flat race over three-quarters of a mile of turf for horses owned and ridden by young women members of the Fairfield and Westchester County hounds.

Golf, tennis and fishing are the attractions at Tuxedo, and all of the cottages have been opened for the week-end, while the clubhouse is filled to capacity over Memorial Day. The entire week will be particularly gay, as the entertaining will be extended to include the annual horse show at Tuxedo Park on Friday and Saturday. The opening of many of the yacht clubs also has been timed for this week. Dances at the country clubs and fashionable resort hotels, and house parties on Long Island, in Westchester County, in the Morristown section of New Jersey and the Berkshires, which will in most cases extend over Memorial Day holiday, will serve to make this the gayest week-end of the spring season.

The Sleepy Hollow Country Club, Scarborough-on-Hudson, has arranged special entertainment for this benefit of the club's charity fund, to be held on Memorial Day. The chief feature of the entertainment will be a concert at the open air theater by the Yale glee and mandolin clubs in the evening, following the club dinner. The day's program will also include an "open-hole" golf contest, tennis and dancing.

Official Welcome
At Atlantic City
For Bathing Legion

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE TRIBUNE
ATLANTIC CITY, May 27.—Hotel operations at many of the beachfront establishments are at a premium, and most of the arrivals will remain until Tuesday night. On the morning of May 28 the inauguration of the bathing season will be made. There will be a parade of the life guards, nearly a hundred, with thirty-five new life-bats, followed by the medical attendants, with Beach Surgeon Dr. Charles Bennett at their head. City officials, headed by the Director of Public Safety, Mr. W. S. Cuthbert, will share in the procession.

Dr. Adolf Streuli, Director of Hygiene of Zurich, Switzerland, who is staying at the Ambassador this week, believes that the women of Switzerland do not care to vote. His observations were provoked by the recent activity of women's clubs in convention here and their interest in things political.

"It is only the university women who are asking for equal suffrage in my country," he said. "Those not well educated do not manifest any interest, so far as the women consider voting in Switzerland, the idea is scarcely more than a ripple, but it may become a great wave. I am pleased with your ideas on co-education. It broadens both male and female. The honor system in your schools is great. It develops a sense of responsibility that will mean great things when the young take on the affairs of government. I intend to recommend the plan to my own council."

A new idea in Boardwalk fashions has hit the town. It is the "dapper jump" and consists of the tongue of new slippers rolled over toward the heel, with the initials of the wearer on the upper surface in gold or silver thread. The fad was introduced by Miss Betty Green, of Boston, who is here with her mother for the season and is stopping at a Connecticut Avenue cottage. Dealers have found a demand sufficient to induce them to lay in a stock of the footwear, the initials being supplied at the instance of the purchaser.

Beginning July 1, daily air service between this city and New York will be operated by the Aeromarine Transportation Company. The hotel that along the beach front has guaranteed a profit for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Elper, of the South Shore Country Club, Chicago, have removed their residence to the Ambassador for an indefinite sojourn.

The Social World

Miss
Katherine,
Van
Ingen
CAMPBELL STUDIOS

Mrs. Donald Dunlap
Cookie O'Connell

Miss Van Ingen, Miss Horne and Miss Hoy are to be June brides. Miss Van Ingen will be married to Mr. John Faber Dunlap Jr. on Thursday, Miss Horne will marry Mr. Edward Sammons on June 12, and Miss Hoy will become the bride of Mr. Edward H. Griggs on Saturday.

Mrs. Cooke was married yesterday at the home of her parents, former Attorney General John W. Griggs and Mrs. Griggs, at Sussex House, Paterson, N. J.

British Royalty
See Rare Flowers
At Chelsea Show

King and Queen Unable to Attend, but Princess Mary and Lady Patricia Ramsey
Visit Well Known Affair

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE TRIBUNE
LONDON, May 27.—For the first time in a number of years the King and Queen, through their absence from London, were unable to visit the flower show at Chelsea, which opened Tuesday. This event is always attended by large numbers of prominent people, this year being no exception to the rule.

Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles, her husband, the Queen of Spain, the Crown Prince of Sweden, Lady Patricia Ramsey, the Duchess of Connaught, Princess Alice, the latter accompanied by her Countess of Strafford, Mrs. Arthur James, the Hon. Lady and Sir Cecil Bingham, Mrs. Margaret Asquith, and Princess Antoinette Billeco were among the crowd present soon after the gates opened at midday.

The King and Queen returned from Aldershot Thursday, and on Friday the Queen celebrated her fifty-fifth birthday. It has been decided to hold three evening parties this year, the first being definitely fixed for June 8, the second probably for June 22. The latter date is the anniversary of Coronation Day, while the day after is the Prince of Wales's twenty-eighth birthday.

Jesse Lasky with his wife and two children at present are staying at the Ritz Hotel. Other Americans here include T. R. Marshall, at the Savoy, and Herbert S. Gould, who is stopping at Brown's Hotel with Mrs. Gould. Vice-Almiral and Mrs. A. P. N. Black are at Queen Anne's Mansions for the season, and Captain L. C. and Mrs. Hussey are giving a dance in their honor on Monday.

The J. P. Morgans spent a couple of days in his house at Grosvenor Square. Disappointment is felt in some circles here because of the very short visit Miss Mabel Gervy made in London. At ready Miss Gervy is in Paris and soon expects to return to the United States, joining her father in Newport in July.

Mr. Randolph Lewis, Mrs. M. Deane, Mr. S. Russell, and Mrs. C. K. G. Billings, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Billings, Mrs. C. H. Eicke, Mr. and Mrs. Knapp, Mrs. E. Shulman and Mrs. Edith Kelly Gould are some of the recent New York visitors at the Savoy Hotel.

Among others staying at the Savoy Hotel are Mr. H. H. Pavesi, Mr. M. B. Rosenback and Mr. E. Woodruff, all of New York, and Mrs. S. G. McAllister, of Chicago.

Miss Sarah Louise Payne
Is Married to Mr. Cater

Wedding Takes Place in St.
Thomas's, and Is Followed by Reception

The wedding of Miss Sarah Louise Payne, daughter of Mrs. Charles Leicester Payne, and Mr. Aymar Cater took place in St. Thomas's Church yesterday afternoon and was followed by a small reception at Sherry's. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Wilson J. Stearly, of New Jersey, assisted by the Rev. Samuel Shoemaker.

Mrs. William A. Snow, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and the other bridal attendants included Mrs. Wilson Littleton, Miss Leicester Payne, Miss Helen Bacon and Miss Harriet Payne. Mr. Cater's best man was Mr. John Scannell and the ushers were Mr. William A. Snow, Mr. Kenneth Peck, Mr. Joseph V. Douglas, Mr. Thomas C. P. Martin, Mr. Richard P. Mathiesen, Mr. Wilson Littleton and Mr. Walter C. Stearns Jr.

Mrs. Thomas Webster Edgar, hostess at Bridge Party

Mrs. Thomas Webster Edgar, of 708 West End Avenue, was hostess at a bridge party and Tuesday, given in honor of Mrs. Harry Thompson.

Smart Out-of-Town Weddings
Mark Closing Days of Month

The principal weddings yesterday took place out of town. That of Miss Beatrice Holt and Mr. Brandt Sydnor, Jr. was a brilliant affair at Sunset House, the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Holt, at Woodstock, Conn. Included in the bridal party were Miss Lois Holt as maid of honor, Miss Margery Dangerfield, of New York; Miss Emily Leonard, of Boston; Miss Frances Elliott, of Hartford, Conn.; and Miss Marjorie Reed, of Manchester, N. H.

Mr. Butler Harris Jr., of Princeton, N. J., served as the best man, and Mr. Joseph Smith, Mr. William B. Prim, Mr. Charles H. Ramsey and Mr. John Elliott were the ushers.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Francis Roseboro, of New Haven, Conn., and was followed by a reception for several hundred guests.

The bride's gown was of white satin, trimmed with duchesse lace, and her attendants were gowned alike in orchid-colored crepe, with large picture hats in tones of orchid, covered with spring flowers.

The marriage of Miss Harriet Evans Cramp, daughter of Mr. Walter S. Cramp, to Mr. Henry William Ford, took place in St. Peter's Church, Morristown, N. J., yesterday afternoon. The bride had as her attendants Mrs. John Le Roy Glover, Mrs. Livingston Parsons, Mrs. Bartow Read and Miss John Williams, of New York; Miss Marion White, of Syracuse, and Miss Alice Scully, of Pittsburgh. There was also a small flower girl, Miss Madeleine McAlpin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David McAlpin 2d.

Mr. Pell W. Foster Jr., of New York, served as Mr. Ford's best man, and the ushers were Mr. Arklay King, Mr. John Le Roy Glover, Mr. E. T. H. Falmagne Jr., Mr. Richard Farrell and Mr. Jesse Hoyt, of New York; Mr. C. Jared Ingraham and Mr. James Gowan, of Philadelphia; Mr. Thomas Hilliard and Mr. William Schoen, of Pittsburgh; Mr. Paul Hills, of Auburn, and Mr. John Humphreys, of Boston.

Another out-of-town wedding was that of Miss Elizabeth Griggs and Mr. Donald Dunlap Cooke, which took place yesterday afternoon at Sussex House, the home of the bride's parents, former Attorney General John W. Griggs and Mrs. Griggs, at Paterson, N. J. The ceremony was performed at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Dr. Bacon, of Buffalo, an uncle of the bridegroom. The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Janet Griggs, who was the maid of honor, and Mr. Gordon Cooke was her brother's best man. There were four ushers—Mr. Frederick W. Cooke Jr., Mr. Jeffrey Woodruff, of Englewood, N. J.; Mr. Robert Paine Jr., of Boston, and Mr. Walter Kingsbury, of New York and Washington.

The bride's gown was of white silver-threaded tulle over white satin. With it she wore a tulle veil and carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies-of-the-valley. The bridesmaid was gowned in pale primrose yellow chiffon, with a picture hat of yellow tulle and a bouquet of brown snapdragons and blue larkspur. A reception followed the ceremony.

To Enliven Horse Show
With Westchester Ball

Society Active in Promoting
Two Events in Aid of Charity

Accentuating the social importance of the Westchester Horse Show and the enthusiasm with which prominent families in the vicinity regard it, not only as a sporting event, but as affording an opportunity to materially aid charitable institutions in the neighborhood, a ladies' committee has been formed for the purpose of holding a grand ball at the Gedney Farm Hotel, on Friday evening, June 16, the proceeds of which will be donated to the White Plains Hospital, the Greenwich Hospital and the United Hospital of Rye, Port Chester and Harrison.

The list of patronesses includes all the leaders in social movements throughout Westchester and Fairfield counties. The committee, of which Mrs. George Greer is chairman, comprises Mrs. Francis F. Palmer, Mrs. William Fiske, Mrs. Frederick P. Warfield, Mrs. Everett L. Crawford, Mrs. J. Bosch Jr., Mrs. Mildred Weed, Mrs. Arthur McGovern, Miss Margaret Starkey, Mrs. P. Austen Sniffen, Mrs. Eben Tenure, Mrs. Stephen Pratt, Mrs. Gordon Grand, Mrs. C. Wadsworth Howard, Miss Marie Leary and Mrs. Albert C. Hanchen.

Miss Virginia
Hoy
CHARLOTTE FAIRCHILD PHOTO

Miss Hoy, in a striking spring costume, snapped on Park Avenue a few days ago.

Miss Coppell at the Flower Mart held in St. Paul's Chapel a few days ago.

Newport Prepares
To Greet Return
Of Pre-War Days

Practically All of Cottages
To Be Opened for Season
Filled With Entertaining;
Harding Visit Expected

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE TRIBUNE
NEWPORT, R. I., May 27.—Newport is busy preparing for what will be the best season since before the war, indications to this effect being evidenced from the fact that practically all of the cottages will be opened. It is to be a season of much entertaining, with numerous features planned of particular interest to society. The reports from all sides give the assurance that Newport is to come into its own once again.

Probably the best indication for an active season is the opening, at this early date, of numerous summer residences. Mrs. Elsie Dyer has already opened Vasside, on Bellevue Avenue, while Mrs. T. Shaw Safe will be at Ocean Lawn next week. Mr. and Mrs. James B. Duke, of New York, formerly regular summer residents, have leased from Mrs. F. Lothrop Ames her property on Bellevue Avenue, extending to the cliffs, and will be among the prominent entertainers. Commodore Elbridge T. Gerry and Miss Angelica Gerry arrived at Seaside on Friday, while Mr. and Mrs. William P. Whitehouse have occupied Stone Villa, opposite the Casino.

Among the others who have already opened their estates or are preparing to do so are Mr. T. Suffer Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Marsden J. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Cushman, Dr. and Mrs. Redeker Terry, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Ripley and former Ambassador and Mrs. James W. Gerard, the latter having leased Fairlawn, the Bellevue Avenue home of Miss Evelyn Burden. Late this week Mr. and Mrs. J. Woodhead Haven, of New York, leased the Bellevue Avenue residence of Mrs. Frederick S. Grand d'Hautville for the summer.

President Harding may visit Newport for a day or two, having promised to do so. Dr. John Van Schaick, of Washington, D. C., performed the ceremony. The bridal party included Miss Jeanette Tompkins as maid of honor and Mrs. Harold Bell, Miss Caroline Wright, Miss Lucile Brewster and Miss Marguerite Lee. Mr. Newton M. Rhodes was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Coles V. B. Seeley, Mr. Stewart A. Rhodes, Mr. E. Jansen Hunt, Mr. H. Houghton Goss Jr., Mr. Theodore C. Romaine and Mr. Julian C. Romaine. A large reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Seeley at Montclair.

Miss Agatha Farrington engaged to Mr. McGovern

Mr. William C. Farrington, of 121 East Fifty-seventh Street, announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Agatha Broey Farrington, to Mr. H. B. McGovern, K. C. M. P., of Ottawa, Canada. The wedding will take place in New York in the early autumn.

Tuxedo Park
Plans Varied
Holiday Joys

Handicap Tennis Tourney
and Invitation Affair
on Golf Links Features
for Week-End Arrivals

Friday Ushers In Annual Horse Show

Special Bleachers Placed
Near the Grandstand
for Residents of Town

From a Staff Correspondent

TUXEDO PARK, May 27.

SPORTING events will feature the holiday week-end here. An invitation golf tournament and a handicap tennis tournament will be the chief attractions. Many members of society arrived here to-day to attend the dance to be held in the Tuxedo Club to-night.

Plans are well advanced for the annual Tuxedo Charity Horse Show to be held in the Park next Friday and Saturday. Mrs. David Wagstaff and Mr. Pierre Lorillard Jr. are in charge. It is promised this year's show will be one of the largest ever held at Tuxedo.

Workmen are busy putting the ring in readiness for the show. Special bleacher seats have been erected on the south side of the grandstand for the townspeople, who, according to annual custom, will visit the show Saturday afternoon.

Among those stopping at the Tuxedo Club over the week-end are Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. W. Gilman Low Jr., Miss Rhonda Low, Princess Braganza, Mr. Morin S. Hare, Mr. Francis Roche, Mr. Frederick C. de Vaux, Mr. W. M. Chadburne, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Robinson and Major Pierre Lorillard Jr.

Those who have entered the handicap tennis tournament, to be played on the Tennis Club courts, include Messrs. H. G. Trevor, Roger Tuckerman, A. S. Dabney, Frank Roche, A. A. Lord, Wylia Rosetter Betts Jr., George St. George, Le Grant B. Cannon, F. E. de Rham, Stanley G. Mortimer, W. P. Belnap Jr., Preston Davis, F. N. Blagden, Harry S. Hooker, R. Auchincloss and J. C. Goss.

Among those gathered here for the dance to-night were Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe Wickes, Mrs. Henry M. Tilford, Miss Annette Tilford, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Baldwin, Miss Lucille Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Tamm, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sloan Colt, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cowdin, Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Wylia Rosetter Betts, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. de Rham, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick F. de Rham, Mr. and Mrs. Winthrop McKim, Miss Harriet McKim, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lansing McVickar, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert C. Pell, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Coulter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Foster Carey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Wiggall, Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery Hare and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kip Rhineland.

Miss Eugenia Chapin
To Be Married June 17

Member of Junior League Will Become Bride at Madison, Conn.

The marriage of Miss Eugenia Chapin, daughter of Mr. Barton Chapin, of 41 West Fifty-first Street, to Mr. Adrian Warren Smith, of Buffalo, will take place in the Congregational Church at Madison, Conn., on June 17, followed by a reception at The Arbors, the summer home of the bride. The Rev. Arthur Mahan, of New York, will perform the ceremony. Miss Harriet Chapin will be her sister's maid of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Mary Battin, Miss Mary Lewis, Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Doris Berry, Miss Emma Wyckoff, Miss Margaret Wiener, Miss Louise Callender and Miss Caroline Reminway.

Mr. Hayden Smith will be his brother's best man, and the ushers will be Mr. William Lord, Mr. J. A. Gafford, Mr. J. Allen Grover, Mr. Albert H. Crosby, Mr. J. C. Dann Jr., Mr. W. W. Holden, Mr. Mugee Wyckoff, Mr. Barton Chapin Jr., Mr. J. R. Beard and Mr. Fred Townsend.

Miss Chapin is a member of the Junior League.

Miss Helen Seeley Becomes
Bride of Mr. Victor Romaine

The wedding of Miss Helen Seeley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coles Anson Seeley, of Montclair, N. J., and Mr. Victor Romaine, son of Mr. Jean S. Romaine, of 255 West Seventy-fourth Street, took place yesterday afternoon in St. Luke's Episcopal Church at Montclair, N. J. The Rev. Luke M. White, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. John Van Schaick, of Washington, D. C., performed the ceremony. The bridal party included Miss Jeanette Tompkins as maid of honor and Mrs. Harold Bell, Miss Caroline Wright, Miss Lucile Brewster and Miss Marguerite Lee. Mr. Newton M. Rhodes was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Coles V. B. Seeley, Mr. Stewart A. Rhodes, Mr. E. Jansen Hunt, Mr. H. Houghton Goss Jr., Mr. Theodore C. Romaine and Mr. Julian C. Romaine. A large reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Seeley at Montclair.

Miss Agatha Farrington
Engaged to Mr. McGovern

Mr. William C. Farrington, of 121 East Fifty-seventh Street, announces the engagement of his daughter, Miss Agatha Broey Farrington, to Mr. H. B. McGovern, K. C. M. P., of Ottawa, Canada. The wedding will take place in New York in the early autumn.